

Assignment of copyright before publication in la Revue LISA/LISA e-journal

Title of article<sup>1</sup> : .....
Title of work .....
.....

Full Name(s) of author(s) : .....
(in the case of collective work, please indicate all authors, see below<sup>2</sup>)
.....
.....
.....

Post occupied : .....

e-mail :

Professional address and phone number :
.....
.....

I, the undersigned, _____, assign to la Revue LISA/LISA e-journal all rights of reproduction (or copyright) of the article/work<sup>1</sup> mentioned above which is due for publication in edition number (n° _____), year 200 in la Revue LISA/LISA e-journal. This assignation of copyright will take effect once the article/work<sup>1</sup> in question has been published. I declare that this is my own original work and that I have obtained written permission and paid all necessary fees and charges related to any documents used. La Revue LISA/LISA e-journal declines all responsibility for copyright charges incurred by the author.

Written permission from la Revue LISA/LISA e-journal must be sought before publishing all or part of this article or work elsewhere, whether in the same or in a different form. If such permission is granted, then an acknowledgement of this authorisation must be given.

The author(s) declare(s)<sup>1</sup> that this article/work<sup>1</sup> has not been previously published and is not currently under submission for publication elsewhere.

Date :
Signature

---

<sup>1</sup> Please delete as appropriate.

<sup>2</sup> In the case of collective work, each individual author is required to complete a copy of this form.